Thoughts on the Kentucky Rifle in its Golden Age
by Joe Kindig, Jr..................................................#Book-TOKRGA
The famous Kindig Collection of longrifles was perhaps the most extensive ever assembled. The author presents 262 nicely carved rifles, and treats the subjects as an art form with makers grouped into “schools” of similar style. Text includes much research from tax, census, and church records, and reveals the apprentice to master relationships between famous makers. Since this book was first published in 1960, Dr. Shumway has provided many annotation and some illustrations for this edition. Large hard bound 9 x 12” format of 561 pages.
Profusely illustrated, this is the BIBLE of Kentucky Rifles!

Rifles of Colonial America...........................#Book-RCA-V1 or V2 by George Shumway
These magnificent volumes are photographic studies of longrifles made in Colonial America before and during the Revolutionary War. Many famous makers are represented, including Christian’s Spring, and the Edward Marshall rifle, with at least ten large detailed photos of each rifle. Dr. Shumway’s superb photo technique easily makes this the most desirable reference on the art of early longrifles ever produced. Matching hard bound volumes are large 9 x 12” format, profusely illustrated with 650 black and white photos.
Each volume is sold separately.
