“HB – Hudson’s Bay” Pewter Button .............. #Button-HB-M
This medium sized button is cast from solid pewter. A replica of the original, notice the tiny “hall marks” on the back. An integral loop is cast into the back.
#Button-HB-M Hudson’s Bay, pewter only $1.20

“Frogged Eagle” Pewter Button, medium ....... #Button-FE-M
The “frogged eagle” button dates from the American Revolution. A primitive “folk art” representation of the American Eagle emblem, never standardized, it shows how we grasped for a national identity.
#Button-FE-M Frogged Eagle, pewter only $ .99

“Infantry Eagle” Pewter Button, medium......... #Button-IE-M
This Civil War infantry button has a bold ‘I’ in the center of the shield. Convex (dome shaped) replica of solid pewter.
#Button-IE-M Infantry Eagle, pewter only $ .99

“Scottish Thistle” Pewter Button.................. #Button-TH-M
The “Scottish Thistle” motif is cast into the surface of this flat button of solid pewter. An integral loop is cast into the back. Medium size.
#Button-TH-M Scottish thistle, flat only $ .99

“Scottish Thistle” Pewter Button, concave ...... #Button-TH-C
This variation of the “Scottish Thistle” button bears the classic emblem, but is slightly concave (sunken) in the center. Cast from an original.
#Button-TH-C Scottish thistle, concave only $ .99

“Scottish Thistle” Pewter Button, small......... #Button-TH-S
The smallest “Scottish Thistle” button compliments the larger styles, and will serve well on shirts and sleeves.
#Button-TH-S Scottish thistle, small only $ .99

“Five Point Star” Pewter Button, small.......... #Button-ST5-S
This tiny button has a flat face, with a raised five pointed star, and a rope rimmed border, in military fashion. Cast of solid pewter, our replica has a loop on the back for attachment.
#Button-ST5-S 5 point star, small only $1.25

“King’s 8th Regiment” Pewter Button ............. #Button-KS-8
The “King’s 8th Regiment” uniform button dates from 1774 through 1784, and is shown in Collector’s Illustrated Encyclopedia of the American Revolution. Our replica is solid pewter.
#Button-KS-8 K’s 8 button, pewter only $ .99

“USA Continental” Pewter Button, medium .. #Button-USA-M
The “USA Continental” button dates from 1775 through 1783, and is the most common marked American soldier’s button found. Solid pewter replica, with integral loop cast into the back.
#Button-USA-M USA, medium, pewter only $ .99

“USA Continental” Pewter Button, small.... #Button-USA-S
The smaller “USA Continental” button compliments the larger style above. Notice the rope border motif.
#Button-USA-S USA, small, pewter only $ .99

“Arabesque” Pewter Button, medium........... #Button-ARB-M
Called an “Arabesque” button, a floral pattern embossed on the flat face. Apparently the original was two pieces, a cover over a base.
#Button-ARB-M Arabesque, pewter only $1.60

Revolutionary War era “Four Hole” Button..#Button-FP4-M
This flat pewter button is medium sized, with four holes, which indicates early use. The face has a grooved rim. Solid pewter replica.
#Button-FP4-M four hole, pewter only $ .99

“Two Hole” Pewter Button ....................... #Button-FP2-M
Two hole buttons were used well after the American Revolution. Our two hole button is medium size, with a grooved rim.
#Button-FP2-M two hole, pewter only $ .99

Large convex “Fleur-de-lis” Button .......... #Button-FLU-L
Our largest button, the original may have been hammer formed. A French device is overlaid on the front. The back is concave with a small loop. Cast of solid pewter, use on frocks or coats. We offer a matching flat medal, pierced for use as a pendant, with the French Royal Device, the “fleur-de-lis”.
#Button-FLU-L large button, pewter only $2.79
#Medal-FLU-L flat medal, pewter only $3.99

©2012, Track of the Wolf, Inc.
buttons shown actual size

18th century military buttons were not sewn on, but were attached with a cotton or leather thong running through the shanks, which made them easy to remove and polish.